

The Immediate Family is comprised of four of the most recorded, respected, and sought-after players in modern music: Danny Kortchmar (guitar and vocals), Waddy Wachtel (guitar and Vocals), Leland Sklar (bass), Russ Kunkel (drums), and the addition of touring/session guitarist/songwriter, Steve Postell. Their work can be heard on dozens of albums from some the top-selling artists in music history; Stevie Nicks, Keith Richards, Jackson Browne, Crosby, Stills, Nash & Young, Don Henley, and countless others. Known as “The Section,” in the 1970s, members of the group have co-written or been featured on tracks such as “Edge of Seventeen,” “Somebody’s Baby,” and “New York Minute.” As the Immediate Family, they have come together to write and record original music that they will tour alongside the timeless hits that they have been a part of. The group is also the subject of an upcoming documentary directed by Denny Tedesco (“The Wrecking Crew”)
